ACADEMIC YEAR 1982-1983

Dear Student

Those who can recall my opening talk during the orientation days in August and January might remember what have some have termed my "keynote" or philosophy of how young people should approach their education and, for that matter, life in general. If I remember correctly, it went something like this "work hard, but just remember when you should be doing which". That maxim has served me well during my life and, during your time here at the Rome Center, I hope you have begun to incorporate into your lives, too. For, with the vast opportunities for travel, the frequent visits to Vincenzo's, and worshipping at the altar of the almighty Eurial Pass, you have had to weight these priorities with those of attending class and taking seriously your academic responsibilities. If, during the past semester or year, you began to come to grips with the delicate balancing of these priorities, then your experience abroad should have been a valuable one no matter how many Florentine sweaters or high-heeled shoes you purchased!

This has been a wonderful year for me, getting to know so many of you and developing friendships I sincerely hope will continue to grow over the years.

To me youth is one of God's most fantastic creations, for it is not a time of life but rather a state of mind, a temper of the will, a quality of imagination, a predominance of courage over timidity, of the appetite for adventure over the love of ease. As I told you at the Mass of the Holy Spirit in September "the grandeur of youth is his mind but the glory of youth is his spirit. It is a grand thing that your mind can and must seek knowledge and truth; but is glorious and a wonder that your spirit can and must seek beauty and justice. By your mind you know and reason, but, by your spirit or soul you love and serve others". This has been my fundamental belief supporting the many happy years I have been privileged to work with young people and this year has been no exception! Never lose your zest for life or quest to travel, for they are the ultimate test of your desire and ability to understand the diversity of the great peoples who make up this world.

As you leave the Rome Center and return to your families and familiar surroundings, look upon your time here as the "dream of a lifetime" but more as a beginning of your initiation into the world community. In 1967 I came to Europe for the first time, never believing I would return.

Eight round-trip transatlantic flights later, I still feel I have only begun. Come back and, when you do, remember where it all began—here in Rome, a home that will always welcome you with open arms. Arrivederci e, in futuro benvenuto!

A grand era, flourishing with millions of riches Roads covered with different nationalities disguised in guided robes

Exitement reigns everywhere, such beauty and happiness! Rome, such a splendid place in the time of the Emperors!

Victory was fought Won with pride.

Destruction of the greatest comes in a poorly dressed man, famine written on his face, depression in the way he talks, and sadness in his eyes He carries a dead child in his arms, while useless golden tears trickle down his sunken cheeks.

He looks up to the sky of blue and wonders and dreams. Relishing the past that he knew was
* so great, so becoming to a man of his status.
Dream onward, old man, but time changes with every melody, War destroys even the greatest nations bringing prodigious weapons that destroy everything in their path, like the monster of Pompeii. Egypt with its thousands of slaves, a great empire could never hold them, they were free free to rule themselves.

So now old man, remember. Remember the past as something but a dream.

Never try to reconstruct the past it is but a malevolent saga that will never show its secrets again look towards the ocean that which still lives. Hold your dead child to the warming rays of the sun, and pray silently that life may be better from him than it was for you.

Let the waves crash among the jagged rocks, and life will continue the same way, and may be a bit more pleasant, if you are willing to try.

SNOW AT THE VATICAN GARDEN

Jeff Forester

Whispered vestments
of romantic religious truth
waltzed white
down the aisle
to salvation, as mass begins again.

Outside, there is a garden and snowflakes fall white God's answer to so many prayers said there.

The priests that had knelt there at the base of the virgin stone and had cried to deny themselves for God
and had left there refreshed to lead burning, incensed lives,
had all died

But inside the chalice rose again to lowered eyes and pious prayers flew like mumbled doves
while the snow quietly fell on the marble Mary as it has for 500 years

Out Here On My Own

Sometimes I wonder where
I've been, who I am, do I fit in.

Make believin' its hard alone
out here on my own

We're always proven who we are,
Always reaching for that rising star
To guide me far and shine me home.
out here on my own.

When I'm down and feeling blue,
I close my eyes and I can be with you Oh baby be strong for me.
Baby hold on to me.
Help me through, help me,
Need you

And in the morning the sun appears. Making lite of all my fears.
I dry the tears I've never shown,
out here on my own.

'Cause when I'm down and and feeling blue, I close my eyes so I can be with you

Sometimes I wonder where
I've been, who I am, do I fit in.

I may not win, but I can't be thrown out here on my own

For Yesterday is but a dream
And Tomorrow is but a vision But today well lived makes every Yesterday a dream of happiness
And every Tomorrow a vision of hope Look well therefore to this day.

We all know the sound of two hands clapping;
but what is the sound of one hand clapping?

I wish to say one word about Michelangelo Buonarroti. I used to worship the mighty genius of Michelangelo - that man who was great in poetry, painting, sculpture, architecture - great in everything he undertook. But I do not want Michelangelo for breakfast - for luncheon - for dinner - for tea - for supper - for between meals. I like a change occasionally. In Genoa he designed everything; in Milan he or his pupils designed everything; he designed the Lake of Como; in Padua, Verona, Venice, Bologna, who did we ever hear of from guides but Michelangelo? In Florence he painted everything, designed everything nearly, and what he did not design he used to sit on a favorite stone and look at, and they showed us the stone. In Pisa he designed everything but the old shot tower, and they would have attributed that to him if it had not been so awfully out of the perpendicular. He designed the piers of Leghorn and the custom house regulations of Civitavecchia. But here - here it is frightful. He designed St. Peter's; he designed the pope; he designed the Pantheon, the uniform of the pope's soldiers, the Tiber, the Vatican, the Coliseum, the Capitol, the Tarpeian Rock, the Barberini Palace, St. John Lateran, the Campagna, the Appian Way, the Seven Hills, the Baths of Caracalla, the Claudian Aqueduct, the Cloaca Maxima - the eternal - bore designed the Eternal City, and unless all men and books do lie, he painted everything in it! My friend said the other day to the guide, "Enough, enough, enough! Say no more! Lump the whole thing!" Say that the creator made Italy from designs by Michelangelo!"

What is a Friend ?

What is a friend? I will tell you. It is a person with whom you dare to be yourself. ☪ Your soul can be naked with him. ☪ He seems to ask of you to put on nothing, only to be what you are. He does not want you to be better or worse. ☪ When you are with him, you feel as a prisoner feels who has been declared innocent. ☪ You do not have to be on your guard. You can say what you think, so long as it is genuinely you. He understands those contradictions in your nature that lead others to misjudge you. ☪ With him you breathe freely. ☪ You can avow your little vanities and envies and hates and vicious sparks, your meannesses and absurdities and, in opening them up to him, they are lost, dissolved on the white ocean of his loyalty. ☪ He understands. You do not have to be careful. You can abuse him, neglect him, tolerate him. Best of all, you can keep still with him. It makes no matter. He likes you. He is like fire that purges to the bone. ☪ He understands. He understands. You can weep with him, sing with him, laugh with him, pray with him. Through it all—and underneath—he sees, knows and loves you. ☪ A friend? What is a friend? Just one, I repeat, with whom you dare to be yourself. ☪

all of the previously mentioned staff took off for the ends of the Earth leaving an unfurnished mess (the Yearbook) in the laps of these three talented youths. For a time they worked as a team to wade through a room full of pictures. Yet along came another crushing blow; Joel Francis Murray scammed an Interail and abandoned the project for the Emerald Isle. What you have seen is a result of the hard work and diligent effort of Mary Dorothy Collopy and David Murray Pasquesi. A special thanks to these two responsible young people.
